I have never, either in Europe or Amesica, seen a man whom I would achierabilly and with as much confidence copiley to tune or regulate a Plano Forte as Mr. Huribat, and as electefully recommend him to all whowant Flanos tuned.

DAILY SENTINEL.

Kilwankee, Wednesday Morning, Jan. 30, 1850. CITY MATTERS.

Police Court, January 29. woman named Ann McCormick, with her head cut and A woman named Ann McCormick, with her head cut and her eyes blacked, and her dress spotled with blood, from a beating given her by an affectionate brother, named Timetay Canary, was heaught round from the Watch He use, to which place she had been taken the night before for beater.

The woman ant's house and section her brother, stating in the first tried her best to screen her brother, stating in the first place that she received the injuries from falling down, as last, when pressed by the City Attorney, with the n who had beaten her, acknowledged that her bro er had struck her, that " he only just gny me one cloud and new a good brother, so he is."

The defendant pixed gailty to being drunk, and is default of a $3,00 fine was sent to jail for fifteen days.

Mrs. McCormick, like many other women of her class and habits, left the court swearing, and drawing the contrast between her condition as a married woman in her own country and here, and that there state'd have her own country and here, and that there "she'd have her rights." What rights a married woman has there, let the wing trainful and accurate statement tell:

own country. What rights a married woman has there, let the following trathful and accurate statement ted:

"A married woman is, in the eye of the law of England nothing but a chaited. She is the property of her fusband—his for all purposes but to seld or kill; and these reservations are railive negative that positive. She cannot withhold from his greep the carring side woman. All that the has is his—the bequests of her frends, the gentage of her own hands. She cannot withhold from his greep the carring side words, the gentage of her frends, the terming of her own hands. She cannot withhold from his greep the carring side of the fathers. His may waste his substance were for while he drank. His may waste his substance with notes, and that before her eyes—and when he had sport all, has de the father's home to which she may have only the father with the aid of the police, or hand ever to a heder the formance she may have bought obegred for her superister exit since. But cannot work to a heder the formance with membrane. The head of suparation and all ment, though drawn up by a lawyer, he may repositive, on the ground that a man name, though drawn up by a howyer, he may repositive, on the ground that a man errormy, whe can compel him to keep her from the parish fruid that stands for all other between her from the parish fruid that stands for all other between her from the parish fruid that stands for all other between her from the parish fruid that stands for all other between her from the parish fruid that stands for all other between her from the parish fruid that stands for all other between her from the parish fruid that stands for all other between her from all obligations to her, and marry again. There is no attaint is we for his mends was the substance of more all other to the head what it dis forse for fitting the has done so, he may be whose busined;

The assertion that a married noman's rights are bette and in Groat Britnin than here, is so often made i the Police Court, that we have given the above a place to purposely refute it. For in this State, the Statute assign uses, either of which, if proved, is sufficient to obtain from a competent court, a decree of divorce
Frederick Miller was fined $2,00 for fast driving on

Less tittle curious that no persons are arrested for fast

It dips into the means of support, force-times of a large family, too deeply. In nine cases out of ten $1,00 would be a sufficient punishment. Either of the violations to which we allude is generally, almost always the result of momentary carelespeess, or, unlead, of en-threignorance of the existence of such an ordinance; and the fact which bears us out strongly in the correctness of our views, is that we cannot remember an instance of a party being arrested for, or committing a second violation. If the Common Council would change the sections, so that either of these violations should be fined not less than one

"Although it is a well attested, and authenticated fact, that to the genind, calightened, and emobiling indusences of Protestant Christianity, this country owes its rapid growth, and its present greatness, and to which it can alone hock for its future prosperity; yet the arms of the merican people have never been closed against Romanism, Infidelity, Delses, Unitarianism, or Heathenism." The friends of Unitarian Christiani y will doubtless be in the growth, greatness and prosperity of our country, and would like to know what value the American places upon the labors of John Quincr Adams, Evasers, Stanks, and a sore other thereal Christians who are generally supposed to have "deserved will" of their country.

Much interest is manifested in relation to costain pro-posed amendments to the Charter of the city. It is proper for me to state that many imperiousnes wasts in the pres-ant Charter, some of which my attention has been often called to in consequence of the many suits caused by such imperfections. Not-withstanding one Ward has as great a population and as much wealth all of the towns, the result is, that no public improvements are made by the county, notwithstanding the strong desire on the part of the city to make what is demed nicessary public improvements.

But a short time since, at a meeting of the Common Council, an adderman proposed a resolution shollshing the edites of GU Marshal and conferring same powers on the Chief of Police, to which on alderman remarked that it was mosceary that there should be many amendments to the Charter, and thereupon a resolution was introduced directing the City Attaces in the Charter, which resolution was adopted, at the same time it was stated that any adderman whe had any amendments to propose could present them to the Gly Attorney, and they could all be made at one time. In accordance with said resolution it about a subject of his resolution is a boile in a subject of the contract of the resolution to abolish the office of his risk, called on me at my office, to propose assendances to the Charter, and the Beccoul Ward is to three Wards, and also proposed to divide the First Ward into two Wards, and the Beccoul Ward is to three Wards, and also proposed to divide the First Ward into two Wards, and takes to Mardison I fecund that a bill to divide the wards and takes to Mardison I fecund that a bill to divide the wards had about the allowed the presentation of a representative, and therefore the proposition as an administration of the different secundary.
